

Susan B. Katz

NBCT, Bilingual Award-Winning Author & Speaker

“In verse that never misses a beat, Katz describes familiar classroom activities for each letter of the alphabet.” – Publisher’s Weekly

“Katz’s rhythms and rhymes are spot-on, and she tackles the tough letters with aplomb.” – Kirkus Reviews

- Engaging presentations for K-5 students and/or teacher site/district professional development
- Keynote speaker for conferences
- Master facilitator of workshops
- Spanish bilingual presenter
- Extremely well-versed in CCSS implementation
- Trained in Learning by Design & Differentiation

Susan B. Katz, NBCT, is the award-winning author of ABC, SCHOOL’S FOR ME (Scholastic, 2015) as well as MY MAMA EARTH and ABC, BABY ME. She is a seasoned, bilingual educator with over 20 years expertise presenting to children and adults. An incredibly engaging presenter and storyteller, Ms. Katz is available nationally for school, library, conference, university, museum and book festival events. She is also a literacy consultant and the Founder of ConnectingAuthors.org. Scholastic is publishing her fourth book in 2016.